PREFACE

THE first complete English translation of the Bible was made by Miles Coverdale and printed in the year 1535. On the original title-page it is described as 'faithfully and truly translated out of Douche and Latyn into Englishe.' By 'Douche' is meant what we now understand by High Dutch or German, and in the Dedication to Henry VIII. he says further 'I have...purely & faythfully translated this out of fyve sundry interpreters.' So far as can be ascertained from internal evidence these were the Zurich Version (1524–1529) and the editions to 1534, Luther's, finished in 1532, the Vulgate, Jerome's Hebrew Version, and the version of Sanctes Pagninus (1528). In the Psalms he would get no help from his predecessor Tindale, whose work on the Old Testament did not extend beyond the historical books and the prophet Jonah. The place of printing and the printer are alike uncertain. The most probable conjecture is that it was printed at Zurich by Christopher Froschover who also printed the edition of 1550. In 1537 it was reprinted in England by James Nycolson, and the variations in the Psalter between the editions of 1535, 1537, and 1550 are given in the Appendix.

Under the patronage of Thomas Cromwell, Coverdale prepared a new edition of Matthew's Bible, which was originally published in 1537, and was revised by Coverdale chiefly, in the Old Testament, with the help of Sebastian Münster's Latin Version, which had appeared in 1534–5, too late to be of assistance to him in making his own translation. The result was the Great Bible, or, as it is called in Cromwell's injunction to the clergy, 'the hole byble of the largyest volume.' It is sometimes known as Cromwell's Bible. The printing was begun in Paris by Regnault and completed in London by Grafton and Whitchurch in 1539. A copy on vellum and illuminated, which was originally prepared for Cromwell himself, is in the Library of St John's College, Cambridge.

This was again revised by Coverdale, still in the Old Testament under the influence of Münster, and with a Prologue by Cranmer, whence it was called Cranmer's Bible, was issued in April 1540. It was succeeded by five other editions, in July 1540, November 1540, May 1541, November 1541, and December 1541, and the variations in the Psalter between these six editions and the Great Bible are given in the Appendix. With scarcely any exception the Prayer Book version of the Psalms is the work of Coverdale alone as the result of his three revisions.

The Geneva Version, so called from being the work of the English exiles at Geneva in the reign of Mary Tudor, was made partly under the influence of the French Protestant Version printed there in 1559, and it was published in the following year. The printer was Rowland Hall who at the same time carried on business in London. Whittingham, afterwards Dean of Durham, Gilby, and Sampson, are the three names which are associated in the translation.

PREFACE

'The Boke of Psalmes' was separately printed in 1559 at Geneva also by Rowland Hall, and the edition does not differ from that which appeared next year in the complete Bible.

The Bishops' Bible, so called from the Bishops who under Matthew Parker, Archbishop of Canterbury, took part in the work, appeared in 1568. It was unfortunate in regard to the version of the Psalms, which is attributed to Thomas Becon, on the authority of Strype, but not with any certainty, for the initials T. B. at the end of the Psalter may also indicate Thomas Bickley, who was one of Parker's chaplains and afterwards Bishop of Chichester. But whoever may have been responsible for it, it so little commended itself to popular favour, that after it was included with corrections in the quarto edition of 1569 it was printed in parallel columns with the Prayer Book Version in the second folio edition of 1572 and did not appear again till 1585, when it was printed for the last time. The variations between the editions of 1568 and 1569 are given in the Appendix.

The Authorised Version is printed from the first of the two issues which appeared in 1611.

The Revised Version is as it appeared in 1885.

In Coverdale and the Great Bible the verses are not marked, but they are supplied for convenience of reference.

The verses in the Great Bible version which are added from the Vulgate are printed in smaller type.

As a translation is incomplete without alternative marginal readings, these are given where they occur in all the versions, except the Great Bible and its six descendants, which have no marginal readings.

NOTES

Psalm vii. 1 (Geneva). For 'me trust' some copies have correctly 'my trust.'

In the last sheet f(1) of the Bishops' Bible some copies have a number of variations, none of which are of any importance except 'Salou' for 'Salou' in Psalm exxxvii. 2.

40 And thou hast given me the neckes of mine enemies, that I might destroye them that hate me.

41 They cryed, but there was none to saue them, euen vnto the Lord, but he answered them not.

⁴² Then I did beate them smale as the dust before the winde: I did tread them flat as the claye in the stretes,

- 29 The way of the Lorde is a perfect way, the worde of God is tryed in the fire: he is a shielde vnto all them that put their trust in hym.
- 30 For who is a Lorde besides God: or who hath any strength besides our Lorde?
- 31 It is God that hath gyrded me with valiauntnesse of warre: and he hath made my way playne.
- 32 He hath made my feete lyke Hartes feete: and he hath set me vp on hygh.
- 33 He hath taught my handes to fyght: and myne armes to breake a bowe of steele.
- 34 Thou hast geuen me the shielde of thy saluation: thy ryght hande also hath helde me vp, and through thy great gentlenesse I haue increased.
- 35 Thou hast made me roomth inough for to go on: so that my feete haue not slypt.
- 36 I have pursued myne enemies and onertaken them: neither dyd I returne backe vntyll I had destroyed them.
- 37 I smote them downe, and they are not able to aryse: they have taken such a fall vnder my feete.
- 38 Thou hast gyrded me with strength vnto battayle: thou hast made them to bowe downe vnder me who haue rysen vp agaynst me.
- 39 Thou hast geuen me myne enemies neckes: and I haue destroyed them that hated me.
- 40 They cryed, but there was none to saue them: they cryed vnto God, but he dyd not heare them.
- ⁴¹ I dyd beat them to powder, like vnto dust in a wynde: I haue brought them as lowe as durt in the streates.
- ⁴² Thou hast deliuered me from sedition of the people, and thou hast made me head of the heathen: a people whom I haue not knowen serueth me, assoone as they hearde of me, they obeyed me.

- 30 As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the Lord is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.
- 31 For who is God saue the LORD? or who is a rocke saue our God?
- ³² It is God that girdeth mee with strength, and maketh my way perfect.
- 33 Hee maketh my feete like hindes feete, and setteth me vpon my high places.

- 35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy saluation: and thy right hand hath holden me vp, and thy gentlenesse hath made me great.
- ³⁶ Thou hast enlarged my steppes vnder me; that my feete did not slippe
- ³⁷ I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turne againe till they were consumed.
- ³⁸ I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen vnder my feete.
- ³⁹ For thou hast girled mee with strength vnto the battell: thou hast subdued vnder me, those that rose vp against me.
- 40 Thou hast also given mee the neckes of mine enemies: that I might destroy them that hate me.
- 1 They cried, but there was none to saue them: euen vnto the LORD, but he answered them not.
- 42 Then did I beate them small as the dust before the winde: I did cast them out, as the dirt in the streetes.
- ⁴³ Thou hast deliuered me from the striuings of the people, and thou hast made mee the head of the heathen: a people whom I haue not knowen, shall serue me.

- 30 As for God, his way is perfect: The word of the LORD is tried; He is a shield unto all them that trust in him.
- 31 For who is God, save the LORD? And who is a rock, beside our God?

 Thou hast also given me the

 And thy right hand hath holden me up,

- 36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me.
- And my feet have not slipped.
- 37 I will pursue mine enemies, and overtake them:
 - Neither will I turn again till they are consumed.
- 38 I will smite them through that they shall not be able to rise:
- They shall fall under my feet.
- 39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle:
 - Thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.
- 40 Thou hast also made mine enemies turn their backs unto me,
 - That I might cut off them that hate me.
- 41 They cried, but there was none to save:
 - Even unto the Lord, but he answered them not.
- 42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind:
 - I did cast them out as the mire of the streets.
- 43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people;
 - Thou hast made me the head of the nations:
 - A people whom I have not known shall serve me.

8 And hast not shut me vp into the hand of the enemie: thou hast set my feete in a large roome.

⁹ Haue mercy vpon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble; mine eie is consumed with griefe, yea my soule and my belly.

10 For my life is spent with griefe, and my yeeres with sighing: my strength faileth, because of mine iniquitie, and my bones are consumed.

11 I was a reproch among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a feare to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without, fled from me.

31 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

¹ In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust; let menever be ashamed: Deliver me in thy righteousness.

² Bow down thine ear unto me; deliver me speedily:

Be thou to me a strong rock, an house of defence to save me.

3 For thou art my rock and my fortress;

Therefore for thy name's sake lead me and guide me.

4 Pluck me out of the net that they have laid privily for me; For thou art my strong hold.

⁵ Into thine hand I commend my spirit:

Thou hast redeemed me, O LORD, thou God of truth.

⁶ I hate them that regard lying vanities:

But I trust in the Lord.

⁷ I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy:

For thou hast seen my affliction; Thou hast known my soul in adversities:

8 And thou hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy; Thou hast set my feet in a large

9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in distress:

Mine eye wasteth away with grief, yea, my soul and my body.

10 For my life is spent with sorrow, and my years with sighing:

My strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are wasted away.

11 Because of all mine adversaries I am become a reproach,

Yea, unto my neighbours exceedingly, and a fear to mine acquaintance:

They that did see me without fled from me.

12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind:

I am like a broken vessel.

13 For I have herde the blasphemy of the multitude: every man abhorreth me: they have gathered a councel together agaynst me, and are purposed to take awaye my life.

20 Thou hydest them prinely by thine owne presence from the proude men, thou kepest them secretly in thy tabernacle, from the strife of tonges. 21 Thankes be to the LORDE, for he hath shewed me maruelous greate kyndnesse in a stronge cite. 22 For when the sodane feare came vpon me, I sayde: I am cast out of thy sight. Neuertheles, thou herdest myne humble prayer, when I cried vnto the. 23 O loue the LORDE (all ye his sayntes) for the LORDE preserueth the faithfull, and plenteously rewardeth he the proude doer. 24 Be stroge therfore & take a good herte vnto you, all ye that put youre trust in the LORDE.

13 For I have heard the railing of great men: feare was on everie side, while they conspired together against me, & consulted to take my life.

¹⁴ But I trusted in thee, ô Lord: I said, Thou art my God.

15 My times are in thine hand: deliuer me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

 16 Make thy face to shine vpon thy seruāt, & saue me through thy mercie.

17 Let me not be confounded, ô Lord: for I have called vpon thee: let the wicked be put to confusion, & to silence in § grave.

18 Let the lying lippes be put to scilence: which speake against y righteous greeuous thinges with disdaine & contempt.

19 Howe plentifull is thy goodnes which thou hast layde vp for them that feare thee? [and whiche] thou hast prepared for them that put their trust in thee before the sonnes of men.

- 14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I sayd, Thou art my God.
- 15 My times are in thy hand: deliuer me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.
- 16 Make thy face to shine vpon thy seruant: saue me for thy mercies sake.
- 17 Let mee not be ashamed, O LORD, for I have called vpon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the graue.

- 19 O how great is thy goodnesse, which thou hast layd vp for them that feare thee: which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee, before the sonnes of men!
- 20 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence, from the pride of man: thou shalt keepe them secretly in a paullion, from the strife of tongues.
- 21 Blessed be the LORD; for hee hath shewed me his maruellous kindnesse, in a strong citie.

13 For I have heard the defaming of many,

Terror on every side:

While they took counsel together against me,

They devised to take away my life.

- 14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my God.
- 15 My times are in thy hand:

Which thou hast wrought for them that put their trust in thee, before the sons of men!

20 In the covert of thy presence shalt thou hide them from the plottings of man:

Thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

PSALM LXIIII

- ¶ To the chiefe musition, a psalme of Dauid.
- ¹ O Lorde heare my voyce in my prayer: preserve my life from feare of the enemie.

³Who haue whet their tongue lyke a sword: who haue drawne their arrow, euen a bitter worde.

- ⁵ They courage them selues in mischiefe: and comune among them selues how they may lay snares, and say, who shall see them?
- 6 They searche out howe to do wrong, they put in practise fully that they have diligently searched out: yea even the secretes and bottome of every one of their heartes.
- 7 But the Lorde wyll sodenly shoote at them with a [swyft] arrowe: their plagues shalbe [apparaunt.]

PSAL. LXIIII.

¶ To the chiefe musician, a Psalme of Dauid.

Heare my voice, O God, in my praier; preserue my life from feare of the enemie.

- ² Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked: from the insurrection of the workers of iniquitie:
- 3 Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bowes to shoote their arrowes, euen bitter words:
- ⁴ That they may shoote in secret at the perfect: suddenly doe they shoote at him, and feare not.
- ⁵ They incourage themselues in an euill matter: they commune of laying snares priuily; they say, Who shall see them?
- ⁶ They search out iniquities, they accomplish a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deepe.
- ⁷ But God shall shoote at them: with an arrowe, sodenly shall they be wounded.
- 8 So they shall make their owne tongue to fall vpon themselues: all that see them, shall flee away.
- 9 And all men shall feare, and shall declare the worke of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing.
- 10 The righteous shalbe glad in the Lord, and shall trust in him; and all the vpright in heart shall glory.

- 10 They shall be given over to the power of the sword:
- They shall be a portion for foxes.

 11 But the king shall rejoice in
 - Every one that sweareth by him shall glory;

For the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

64 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

- ¹ Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint:
- Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
- ² Hide me from the secret counsel of evil-doers;
- From the tumult of the workers of iniquity:
- Who have whet their tongue like a sword.
- And have aimed their arrows, even bitter words:
- 4 That they may shoot in secret places at the perfect:
 - Suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.
- ⁵ They encourage themselves in an evil purpose;
 - They commune of laying snares privily;
- They say, Who shall see them?

 They search out iniquities; We have accomplished, say they, a diligent search:
 - And the inward thought of every one, and the heart, is deep.
- 7 But God shall shoot at them; With an arrow suddenly shall they be wounded.
- 8 So they shall be made to stumble, their own tongue being against them:
 - All that see them shall wag the head.
- ⁹ And all men shall fear;
 - And they shall declare the work of God,
 - And shall wisely consider of his doing.
- 10 The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; And all the upright in heart shall glory.

¶ To the chiefe musician vpon Shoshannim, A Psalme of Dauid.

Saue mee, O God, for the waters are come in vnto my soule.

- ² I sinke in deepe mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deepe waters, where the flouds ouerflow me.
- ³ I am weary of my crying, my throate is dried: mine eves faile while I waite for my God.
- 4 They that hate mee without a cause, are moe then the haires of mine head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mightie: then I restored that which I tooke not
- 5 O God, thou knowest my foolishnesse; and my sinnes are not hidde from thee.
- 6 Let not them that waite on thee, O Lord God of hostes, be ashamed for my sake: let not those that seeke thee, be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.
- ⁷ Because for thy sake I have borne reproch: shame hath couered my face.
- ⁸ I am become a stranger vnto my brethren, and an aliant vnto my mothers children.
- ⁹ For the zeale of thine house hath eaten mee vp; and the reproches of them that reproched thee, are fallen vpon me.

10 When I wept, and chastened my soule with fasting, that was to my reproch.

11 I made sackecloth also my garment: & I became a prouerbe to them.

12 They that sit in the gate, speake against mee; and I was the song of the drunkards.

13 But as for mee, my prayer is vnto thee, O Lord, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude

- 69 For the Chief Musician; set to Shoshannim, A Psalm of David.
- 1 Save me, O God;

For the waters are come in unto mv soul.

- ² I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing:
 - I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.
- ³ I am weary with my crying; my throat is dried:

Mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.

- 4 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head:
 - They that would cut me off, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty:

Then I restored that which I took not away.

⁵ O God, thou knowest my foolish-

And my sins are not hid from thee. 6 Let not them that wait on thee be ashamed through me, O

Lord God of hosts: Let not those that seek thee be brought to dishonour through me, O God of Israel.

7 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach;

Shame hath covered my face.

8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren,

And an alien unto my mother's children.

- 9 For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up;
 - And the reproaches of them that reproach thee are fallen upon me.
- 10 When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, That was to my reproach.
- 11 When I made sackcloth my clothing,
- I became a proverb unto them.
- 12 They that sit in the gate talk of me:
- And I am the song of the drunkards.
- 13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, in an acceptable time:

PSAL. LXXIIII.

¶ Maschil of Asaph.

O God, why hast thou cast vs off for euer? why doeth thine anger smoke against the sheepe of thy pasture?

² Remember thy Congregation which thou hast purchased of olde: the rod of thine inheritance which thou hast redeemed, this mount Sion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

³ Lift vp thy feete vnto the perpetuall desolations: euen all that the enemie hath done wickedly in the Sanctuarie.

⁴ Thine enemies roare in the midst of thy congregations: they set up their ensignes for signes.

⁵ A man was famous according as he had lifted vp axes vpon the thicke trees.

⁶ But now they breake downe the carued worke thereof at once, with axes and hammers.

⁷ They have cast fire into thy Sanctuary, they have defiled by casting downe, the dwelling place of thy Name to the ground.

⁸ They said in their hearts, Let vs destroy them together: they

²⁴ Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel,

And afterward receive me to glory.

25 Whom have I in heaven but thee? And there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee.

26 My flesh and my heart faileth: But God is the strength of my heart and my portion for ever.

27 For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish:

Thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.

28 But it is good for me to draw near unto God:

I have made the Lord God my refuge,

That I may tell of all thy works.

1 O God, why hast thou east us off for ever?

Why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

Which thou hast redeemed to be the tribe of thine inheritance; And mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

3 Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual ruins,

All the evil that the enemy hath done in the sanctuary.

4 Thine adversaries have roared in the midst of thine assembly; They have set up their ensigns for signs.

⁵ They seemed as men that lifted up

Axes upon a thicket of trees.

They break down with hatchet

⁷ They have set thy sanctuary on five:

They have profaned the dwelling place of thy name even to the

- ² I wyll open my mouth in a parable: I wyll declare harde sentences of the olde tyme past.
- ³ Which we have hearde and knowen: and such as our fathers have tolde vs.
- ⁴ We wyll not hyde them from their children: nay we wyll set foorth in wordes to the generation to come, the prayses of God, and his myght and wonderfull workes that he hath done.
- ⁵ For he reuiued a statute in Iacob, and gaue Israel a lawe: in the whiche he commaunded our forefathers to teache their children.
- ⁶ To the intent the posteritie shoulde knowe it, [and] children whiche shalbe borne: that they shoulde ryse vp and declare it to their children.
- ⁷ That they shoulde put their trust in God, and not forget the workes of God: but kepe his commaundementes.
- ⁸ And that they be not as their forefathers [were] a rebellious and a mutable generation: a generation that directed not their heart aright, and whose spirite cleaued not stedfastly vnto God.

⁹ [Like as] the children of Ephraim, which beyng harnessed & carying bowes: turned their backes in the day of battayle.

10 They kept not the couenaunt of God: and they woulde not walke in his law.

¹¹ But they forgat his workes: and his wonders which he had shewed them.

²⁰ Thou leddest thy people like a flock, by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

PSAL, LXXVIII.

¶ Maschil of Asaph.

Giue eare, O my people, to my Lawe: incline your eares to the wordes of my mouth.

- ² I will open my mouth in a parable: I wil vtter darke sayings of old:
- ³ Which we have heard, & knowen: and our fathers have told vs.
- 4 We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come, the praises of the LORD: and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.
- ⁵ For he established a Testimony in Iacob, and appointed a Law in Israel, which he commaunded our fathers: that they should make them knowen to their children.
- ⁶ That the generation to come might know them, euen the children which should be borne: who should arise and declare them to their children:
- ⁷That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God: but keepe his Commandements.
- ⁸ And might not bee as their fathers, a stubborne and rebellious generation, a generation that set not their heart aright: and whose spirit was not stedfast with God.

⁹ The children of Ephraim being armed, and carying bowes, turned backe in the day of battell.

- 10 They kept not the couenant of God: and refused to walke in his Law:
- ¹¹ And forgat his workes: and his wonders that he had shewed them.

By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

78 Maschil of Asaph.

¹ Give ear, O my people, to my law:

Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

² I will open my mouth in a parable;

I will utter dark sayings of old:
Which we have heard and known,
And our fathers have told us.

⁴ We will not hide them from their children,

Telling to the generation to come the praises of the Lord, And his strength, and his wondrous works that he hath done.

⁵ For he established a testimony in Jacob,

And appointed a law in Israel, Which he commanded our fathers,

That they should make them known to their children:

6 That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born;

Who should arise and tell them to their children:

⁷ That they might set their hope in God, And not forget the works of God,

But keep his commandments:

⁸ And might not be as their fathers,

A stubborn and rebellious generation;
A generation that set not their heart aright,

And whose spirit was not sted-

And whose spirit was not stedfast with God.

9 The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows, Turned back in the day of battle.

10 They kept not the covenant of God,

And refused to walk in his law;

11 And they forgat his doings,

And his wondrous works that he had shewed them. 12 Maruelous thinges dyd he in the sight of their fathers in the londe of Egipte, euen in the felde of Zoan. 13 He deuyded the see and let them go thorow it, and made the waters to stonde like a wall. 14 In the daye tyme he led them with a cloude, and all the night thorow with a light of fyre. 15 He cloaue the hard rockes in the wildernesse, and gaue them drynke therof, as it had bene out of the greate deapth. 16 He brought waters out of the stony rocke, so that they gusshed out like the ryuers. 17 Yet for all this they synned agaynst him, and prouoked the most hyest in the wildernesse. 18 They tempted God in their hertes, and requyred meate for their lust. 19 For they spake agaynst God and sayde: Yee yee, God shal prepare a table in the wyldernesse, shall he? 20 Lo, he smote the stony rocke, that the watery streames gusshed out, and the streames flowed withall: but how can be geue bred and prouvde flesh for his people? 21 When the LORDE herde this, he was wroth: so the fyre was kyndled in Iacob, and heuy displeasure agaynst Israel.

22 Because they beleved not in God, and put not their trust in his helpe. 23 So he commanded the cloudes aboue, and opened the dores of heaven, 24 He rayned downe Manna vpō them for to eate, and gaue them bred from heauen. 25 Then ate they angels fode, for he sent them meate ynough. 26 He caused the east wynde to blowe vnder the heauen, and thorow his power he brought uelous thynges dyd he in the syght of oure fathers in the lande of Egypte, euen in the felde of zoan.

- 16 He brought waters out of the stony rocke, so that it gusshed out lyke the ryuers.

- 14 In the daietime also he led them with a cloude, and all the night with a light of fyer.

- 21 Therefore the Lord heard and was angrie, and the fyer was kindled in Iaakób, and also wrath came vpon Israél, 13 He deuided the sea and let them go thorowe: he made the waters to stande as on an heape.

14 In the day time also he led them with a cloude: and all the night through with a light of fire.

15 He cloued the harde rockes in the wildernes: & gaue them drinke therof, as it had ben out of the great deepe waters.

¹⁶ He brought running streames out of a stonie rocke: and caused waters to gushe downe, like as out

- 17 Yet for all this they sinned still against hym: so that they prouoked the most hyghest in the wildernesse.
- ¹⁸ And they temped god in their heartes: in requiring meate for their lust.

19 They spake against God: they said, can God prepare a table in the wildernesse?

20 Beholde, he hath smytten the stonic rocke, and waters haue gushed out, and streames haue flowed out aboundantly: but can he likewise geue bread, can he proude fleshe for his people?

²¹ Wherefore God hearde [them,] he was wroth, a fire was kindled in Iacob: and there arose vp heavy displeasure against Israel.

22 Because they beleued not in the Lord: nor did put their trust in his saluation,

23 And yet he commanded the cloudes aboue: and opened the doores of heaven.

²⁶ He removed the east winde from vnder the heaven: and through his power he brought in the south winde.

- 12 Marueilous things did he in the sight of their fathers: in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
- 13 Hee divided the Sea, and caused them to passe through: and he made the waters to stand as an heape.
- 14 In the day time also he led them with a cloud: and all the night with a light of fire.
- 15 Hee claue the rockes in the wildernes: and gaue them drinke as out of the great depthes.

16 Hee brought streames also out of the rocke, and caused waters to runne downe like rivers.

- 17 And they sinned yet more against him: by prouoking the most High in the wildernes.
- 18 And they tempted God in their heart: by asking meat for their lust.
- ¹⁹ Yea, they spake against God: they said, Can God furnish a table in the wildernes?
- 20 Behold, he smote the rocke, that the waters gushed out, & the streames ouerflowed; can he giue bread also? can he prouide flesh for his people?
- 21 Therefore the Lord heard this, and was wroth, so a fire was kindled against Iacob: and anger also came vp against Israel.
- 22 Because they beleeved not in God: and trusted not in his saluation:
- 23 Though he had commanded the cloudes from aboue: and opened the doores of heaven:
- ²⁴ And had rained downe Manna vpon them to eate, and had given them of the corne of heaven.
- 25 Man did eate Angels food: hee sent them meat to the full.
- ²⁶ He caused an East wind to blow in the heauen: and by his power hee brought in the South wind.

- Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers,
 - In the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
- 13 He clave the sea, and caused them to pass through;

And he made the waters to stand as an heap.

14 In the day-time also he led them with a cloud,

And all the night with a light of fire.

15 He clave rocks in the wilderness, And gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.

16 He brought streams also out of the rock,

And caused waters to run down like rivers.

17 Yet went they on still to sin against him,

To rebel against the Most High in the desert.

18 And they tempted God in their heart

By asking meat for their lust.

Yea, they spake against God; They said, Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?

20 Behold, he smote the rock, that waters gushed out,

And streams overflowed;

Can he give bread also?
Will he provide flesh for his people?

21 Therefore the Lord heard, and was wroth:

And a fire was kindled against Jacob,

And anger also went up against Israel:

22 Because they believed not in God,
And trusted not in his salvation.
23 Yet he commanded the skies

above,

And opened the doors of heaven;

24 And he rained down manna upon them to eat,

And gave them of the corn of heaven.

25 Man did eat the bread of the mighty:

He sent them meat to the full.

26 He caused the east wind to blow in the heaven:

And by his power he guided the south wind.

And to sing praises unto thy name, O Most High:

- 3 Vpon an instrumet of ten strynges, vpon the lute and with a songe vpon the harpe.
- ⁴ For thou Lorde hast made me glad thorow thy workes, and I wil reioyse ouer the operacion of thy hondes. ⁵ O Lorde, how glorious are thy workes, thy thoughtes are very depe. ⁶ An vnwyse man wil not knowe this, & a foole wil not vnderstode it. ⁷ That the vngodly are grene as the grasse, and that all the workes of wickednes do florish, to be destroyed for euer. ⁸ But thou Lorde o most hyest, abydest worlde without ende.
- 9 For lo, thy enemies (o Lorde) lo, thy enemies shal perishe, and all the workers of wickednes shalbe scatted abrode. 10 But my horne shalbe exalted like the horne of an Vnicorne, & shal be anounted with fresh oyle. 11 Myne eye also shal se his lust of myne enemies, & myne care shall heare his desyre of the wicked y ryse vp agaynst me. 12 The rightuous shal florish like a palme tre, and growe like a Cedre of Libanus. 13 Soch as be planted in the house of the LORDE, 14 be frutefull, plenteous & grene. 15 That they maye shewe, how true the Lorde my stregth is, and that there is no vnrightuousnesse in him.

 O Lord, how glorious are thy worckes: thy thoughtes are very depe.

- ⁶ An vnwyse man doth not well cosidre this, and a foole doth not vnderstande it. 7 Whā the vngodly are grene as the grasse, ad whā all the worckes of wyckednes do florish, the shall they be destroyed for euer. 8 But yu Lorde art ve most hyest for euermore. ⁹ For lo, thyne enemyes, O Lord, lo, thyne enemyes shall perishe, ād all the worckers of wyckednes shalbe destroyed. 10 But my horne shalbe exalted like the horne of an Vnicorne, for I am anounted with fresh oyle. ¹¹ Myne eye also shall se hys lust of myne enemyes, and myne eare shall heare hys desyre of the wycked that ryse vp agaynst me. 12 The ryghteous shall florish lyke a palme tree, and shall sprede abroade lyke a Cedre in Liban⁹.

- ³ Vpon an instrument of ten strings, and vpō the viole with the song vpon the harpe.
- ⁴ For thou, Lord, hast made me glad by thy workes, & I wil reioyce in the workes of thine hands.
- 5 O Lord, how glorious are thy workes! & thy thoghts are verie depe.
- 6 An vnwise man knoweth it not, and a foole doeth not vnderstand this,
- 7 (When the wicked growe as the grasse, and all the workers of wickednes do florish) that thei shal be destroied for euer.
- ⁸ But thou, ô Lord, art moste high for euer more.
- ⁹ For lo, thine enemies, ô Lord: for lo, thine enemies shal perish: all the workers of iniquitie shalbe destroied.
- 10 But thou shalt exalt mine horne, like the vnicornes, & I shalbe anointed with fresh oile.

- ⁶ An vnwise man doth not consider this: and a foole doth not vnderstande it.
- ⁷ Wheras the vngodly do bud vp greene as the grasse, and wheras all workers of iniquitie do florishe: that they [notwithstandyng] shalbe destroyed for euer and euer.
- ⁸ But thou O God: art the most highest for euermore.
- ⁹ For lo, thine enemies O God, lo thine enemies shall perishe: & all the workers of wickednesse shalbe destroyed.
- 10 But my horne shalbe exalted lyke the horne of an vnicorne: for I am annoynted with excellent oyle.
- 11 And myne eye shall see those that lye in wayte for me: myne eare shall heare the malitious persons that rise vp agaynst me.
- 12 The ryghteous shall florishe lyke a paulme tree: and shall spread abroade like a Cedar in Libanus.
- 13 Such as be planted in the house of God: shall florishe in the courtes of our Lorde.
- 14 They shall styll bryng foorth fruite in their age: they shalbe fat and florishyng.

- ⁴ For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy worke: I will triumph in the workes of thy hands.
- ⁵ O Lord, how great are thy workes! and thy thoughts are very deepe.
- 6 A brutish man knoweth not: neither doeth a foole vnderstand this.
- ⁷ When the wicked spring as the grasse, and when all the workers of iniquitie doe flourish: it is that they shall be destroyed for euer.
- ⁸¶ But thou, Lord, art most high for euermore.
- ⁹ For loe, thine enemies, O LORD, for loe, thine enemies shall perish: all the workers of iniquity shalbe scattred.
- 10 But my horne shalt thou exalt like the horne of an vnicorne: I shalbe anointed with fresh oyle.
- 11 Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies: and mine eares shall heare my desire of the wicked that rise vp a gainst me.
- 12 The righteous shal flourish like the palme tree: hee shall growe like a cedar in Lebanon.
- 13 Those that be planted in the house of the LORD, shall flourish in the courts of our God.
- 14 They shal still bring forth fruit in old age: they shalbe fat, & flourishing:
- ¹⁵ To shew that the Lord is vpright: hee is my rocke, and there is no vnrighteousnesse in him.

- ² To shew forth thy lovingkindness in the morning,
 - And thy faithfulness every night,
- With an instrument of ten strings, and with the psaltery:
 - With a solemn sound upon the harp.
- ⁴ For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work:
 - I will triumph in the works of thy hands.
- ⁵ How great are thy works, O LORD!
 - Thy thoughts are very deep.
- 6 A brutish man knoweth not; Neither doth a fool understand this:
- When the wicked spring as the grass,
 - And when all the workers of iniquity do flourish;
- It is that they shall be destroyed for ever:
- 8 But thou, O Lord, art on high for evermore.
- ⁹ For, lo, thine enemies, O Lord, For, lo, thine enemies shall perish;
 - All the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.
- 10 But my horn hast thou exalted like the horn of the wildox:
 - I am anointed with fresh oil.
- 11 Mine eye also hath seen my desire on mine enemies,
 - Mine ears have heard my desire of the evil-doers that rise up against me.
- 12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree:
 - He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
- 13 They that are planted in the house of the Lord
 - Shall flourish in the courts of our God.
- 14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age;
 - They shall be full of sap and green:
- 15 To shew that the LORD is upright;
 - He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

REVISED (1885)

Had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach,

To turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

²⁴ Yea, they despised the pleasant land,

They believed not his word;

25 But murmured in their tents,

And hearkened not unto the voice of the Lord.

26 Therefore he lifted up his hand

unto them,
That he would overthrow them

That he would overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 And that he would overthrow their seed among the nations,

And scatter them in the lands.

²⁸ They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor,

And atethe sacrifices of the dead.

Thus they provoked him to anger with their doings;

And the plague brake in upon them.

30 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgement:

And so the plague was stayed.

31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness, Unto all generations for ever-

Unto all generations for evermore.

32 They angered him also at the waters of Meribah,

So that it went ill with Moses for their sakes: 33 Because they were rebellious against his spirit,

And he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 They did not destroy the peoples, As the Lord commanded them;

35 But mingled themselves with the nations,

And learned their works:

36 And they served their idols;
Which became a snare unto them:

37 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto demons,

38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters,

Whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan;

And the land was polluted with blood.

23 For he commaundeth and causeth a stormic winde to arise: and he lifteth vp on high his waues.

²⁴ [Then] they ascende vp to heauen, and come downe agayne to the deepe: so that their soule melteth away through trouble.

30 And that they would exalt him in the congregation of the people:

That do business in great waters:

And his wonders in the deep.

25 For he commandeth, and raiseth
the stormy wind,

Which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths:

Their soul melteth away because of trouble.

27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man,

And are at their wits' end.

28 Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble,

And he bringeth them out of their distresses.

29 He maketh the storm a calm,

So that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad because they be quiet;

So he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

PSAL, CIX.

¶ To the chiefe Musician, A Psalme of Danid.

Hold not thy peace, O God of my praise.

² For the mouth of the wicked, and the mouth of the deceitfull are opened against mee: they haue spoken against me with a lying tongue.

³ They compassed mee about also with wordes of hatred: and fought against me without a cause.

- ³ I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the peoples:
- And I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.
- ⁴ For thy mercy is great above the heavens,
 - And thy truth reacheth unto the skies.
- ⁵ Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens:
- And thy glory above all the earth.
- ⁶ That thy beloved may be delivered,
 - Save with thy right hand, and answer us.
- ⁷ God hath spoken in his holiness; I will exult:
- I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.
- 8 Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine;
- Ephraim also is the defence of mine head;
 - Judah is my sceptre.
- 9 Moab is my washpot;
- Upon Edom will I cast my shoe: Over Philistia will I shout.
- 10 Who will bring me into the fenced city?
- Who hath led me unto Edom?

 Hast not thou cast us off, O
 God?
- And thou goest not forth, O God, with our hosts.
- 12 Give us help against the adversary:
- For vain is the help of man.

 13 Through God we shall do val
 - iantly:
 For he it is that shall tread down our adversaries.

PSAL, CXXXI.

¶ A song of degrees or Psalme of Danid.

1 Lord, mine heart is not hawtie, nether are mine eies loftie, nether haue I walked in great matters and hid from me.

² Surely I have behaved my self, like one wained fro his mother, and kept silence: I am in my self as one that is wained.

- ⁶ They shall be as the grasse growing vpon the house toppes: whiche withereth afore that it be shot foorth [to his growth.]
- ⁷Whereof the mower fylleth not his hande: neither he that bindeth vp the sheaues his armes full.
- ⁸ And they which go by, say not so much as the blessing of God be vpon you: we blesse you in the name of God.

PSALM CXXX

¶ A song of high degrees.

¹ Out of the deepe I have called vnto thee O God: O Lorde heare my voyce.

² Let thine eares be attentiue: vnto the voyce of my petition for grace.

³ If thou O God wylt marke what is done amisse: O Lorde who can abide it?

⁴For there is pardon of sinne with thee: that thou mayest be feared.

- ⁵ I have wayted for God, my soule have wayted [for hym:] and I have reposed my trust in his worde.
- ⁶ My soule [listeth] more after God, then watchmen do after the morning: I say more then watchmen do after the mornyng.
- ⁷ Israel ought to trust in God, for there is mercy with God: and there is plenteousnes of redemption with him.
- ⁸ And he wyll redeeme Israel: from all his sinnes.

[PSALM CXXXI]

¶ A song of high degrees (made) of David.

- ¹O God I am not hygh mynded, I haue no proude lokes: I haue not vsed to walke in greater & waightier matters then I ought to do.
- ² Nay I haue restrayned my soule, and kept it lowe like a chylde that is weaned from his mother: yea my soule is within me as a weaned chylde.

- ⁶ Let them bee as the grasse vpon the house tops: which withereth afore it groweth vp:
- ⁷ Wherewith the mower filleth not his hand: nor hee that bindeth sheaues, his bosome.
- ⁸ Neither doe they which goe by, say, The blessing of the Lord be vpon you: wee blesse you in the Name of the Lord.

PSAL. CXXX.

¶ A song of degrees.

Out of the depths haue I cryed vnto thee, O Lord.

- ² Lorde, heare my voice: let thine eares be attentiue to the voice of my supplications.
- ³ If thou, LORD, shouldest marke iniquities: O Lord, who shal stand?
- ⁴ But there is forgiuenesse with thee: that thou mayest be feared.
- ⁵ I wait for the LORD, my soule doeth waite: and in his worde doe I hope.
- ⁶ My soule waiteth for the Lord, more then they that watch for the morning: I say, more then they that watch for the morning.
- ⁷ Let Israel hope in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy: and with him is plenteous redemption.
- ⁸ And hee shall redeeme Israel, from all his iniquities.

PSAL. CXXXI.

¶ A song of degrees of Dauid.

LORD, my heart is not haughtie, nor mine eyes loftie: neither doe I exercise my selfe in great matters, or in things too high for mee.

² Surely I have behaved and quieted my selfe as a child that is weaned of his mother: my soule is even as a weaned childe.

⁶ Let them be as the grass upon the housetops,

Which withereth afore it groweth up:
7 Wherewith the reaper filleth

not his hand,

Nor he that bindeth sheaves

his bosom.

⁸ Neither do they which go by

The blessing of the Lord be upon you;

We bless you in the name of the Lord.

130 A Song of Ascents.

- ¹ Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O Lord.
- ² Lord, hear my voice:

Let thine ears be attentive
To the voice of my supplications.

- ³ If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities,
- O Lord, who shall stand?
- ⁴ But there is forgiveness with thee,
 - That thou mayest be feared.
- ⁵ I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait,
- And in his word do I hope.

 6 My soul looketh for the Lord,
 - More than watchmen look for the morning;
- Yea, more than watchmen for the morning.
- O Israel, hope in the LORD; For with the LORD there is mercy,
- And with him is plenteous redemption.
- 8 And he shall redeem Israel From all his iniquities.

131 A Song of Ascents; of David.

- ¹ LORD, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty;
 - Neither do I exercise myself in great matters,
 - Or in things too wonderful for me.
- 2 Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul;
 - Like a weaned child with his mother,
 - My soul is with me like a weaned child.

 - For great is the glory of the LORD.
- 6 For though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly:
 - But the haughty he knoweth from afar.
- ⁷ Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me;
 - Thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies,
- And thy right hand shall save me.

 Thy mercy, O LORD, endureth

Differences in 1535, 1537, 1550.

In cases of indifference, as between 'saluacyon,' 'saluacion,' the spelling is that of the earlier edition. The same applies to the differences in the editions of the Great Bible.
